Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Manual for County Institutes: June, 1910; Issued by the Department of Education; Little Rock, Arkansas; Geo; B. Cook, Superintendent The county institute week should mean essentially a time for work on the part of every teacher attending. There can not be that definiteness in work that should characterize the institute unless the work be along efficient, practical, well-arranged plans. The outlines as herewith presented if closely followed will, it is believed, prove a progressive, continuous course of study for the professional training and improvement for the rank and file of the teaching force of the state. It would be a splendid idea to secure some special primary teacher to present the work in reading. Many of our primary teachers have had special work in plans and methods of teaching reading and could doubtless give the teachers much excellent and needful instruction as to the best and most improved methods of teaching this subject. The proper teaching of this subject concerns the future efficiency of all our schools. Every teacher should make careful preparation of each day's work and should take full notes of all the work done thus - having at hand, for future study, the work as presented at the institute. Keep the manual. Questions for the regular examinations will be taken from the manuals from time to time. The thanks and appreciation of this Department are due those who have assisted in preparing the outlines for this publication - the names of those who have thus aided in this work are given in connection with the headings of the different subjects. The reports of institutes last year were indeed gratifying to this...
