Excerpt: .she said, and I will do all your bidding. You are wise and brave, fit to be my master. I will obey you. The pigs were brought from the sty. Circe used some magic words and touched them with her rod. They stood up sailors, just as they had been. Then the other men were called up from the shore, and all feasted together. But Ulysses always kept the moly with him, and watched that Circe should not deceive him. DANGERS OF THE SEA BEFORE Ulysses and his men reached Circe's island( they had stopped at the country where Jeoius lived. He had charge of the winds, and could send out gentle breezes or wild storms as he chose. He was glad to see Ulysses and gave him a leather bag tied with a silver string. In it all the hindering and dangerous...
