

The Chinese Factor: An Australian Chinese Woman's Life in China from 1950 to 1979

By Pamela Tan

Rosenberg Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Chinese Factor: An Australian Chinese Woman's Life in China from 1950 to 1979, Pamela Tan, Pamela Tan (Tan Pingmei) left Australia in 1950 as a young Overseas Chinese woman patriotically attracted to the possibilities of the new China created by the success of the communist revolution. She stayed for nearly 30 years, experiencing a roller coaster ride through a period of initial promise followed by a series of disasters to the country, disasters that inevitably affected her personally. Finally, by now disillusioned with her life in China notwithstanding several years of the countrys recovery from Maoist excesses, she returned to Australia to start a new life in 1979, and was joined by her Chinese family the next year. As a student, occasional consultant on China for government and private bodies, and writer, she gradually completed her intellectual and spiritual movement away from the socialist ideals that had long sustained her in China to the quite different philosophy of Buddhism. In this honest and informative memoir, Pamela explores her experience, beliefs, confusion and fear in China, while also providing insight into her young life in Melbourne that contributed to her quest, and...

READ ONLINE
[5.12 MB]

Reviews

It becomes an remarkable publication that I have possibly go through. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I am just delighted to inform you that this is basically the best ebook we have study inside my individual existence and can be he greatest book for actually.

-- Dr. Torrey Osinski DVM

It is really an remarkable ebook that we actually have ever read through. I actually have study and i also am confident that i am going to gonna study once more yet again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Ewell Rempel