CLICK LOOK INSIDEDAD, I HAVE A PROBLEM WITH THIS CASE. WHAT SHOULD I DO A TRUE STORY Breathless, a woman's call to 911 interrupted a quiet night in the horse country suburbs: I'm stabbed to death. Please! Did somebody stab you? I asked the operator. Yes! And my husband, my baby! Within minutes, officers arrived at her remote ranch house but didn't know whether an assailant was still present. Announcing themselves, they got no response, then entered anyway, guns drawn, and began a dangerous, tense search, room by room. Then they heard a baby's scream. Although the house wasn't yet fully cleared, they followed the wailing to the master bedroom where they found, tied and gagged, her husband and elderly father-in-law. They and their 18-month-old all had been shot point-blank in the head--but were still alive. Shocked, the officers called out to bring in paramedics, who had to crawl through the living room because the house still had not been completely cleared. Hurrying, and contrary to usual procedures, the officers spread out. One found a locked closet door; four officers gathered, and...
