Christmas Summary Classics This series contains summary of Classic books such as Emma, Arne, Arabian Nights, Pride and prejudice, Tower of London, Wealth of Nations etc. Each book is specially crafted after reading complete book in less than 30 pages. One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About The Book Henry Fielding was born at Sharpham Park, near Glastonbury, England, April 12, 1707. His father, a grandson of the Earl of Desmond, and great-grandson of the first Earl of Denbigh, settled in England shortly after the battle of Ramillies as a country squire. In due course, Fielding was sent to Eton, and afterwards to Leyden, where he remained for two years studying civil law. Financial difficulties, however, put a temporary end to his intention of entering the Bar, and in 1727 he solved the problem of a career by beginning to write for the stage. During the next nine years some eighteen of his plays were produced. In 1748 he was appointed a justice of peace for Westminster, and his writings on police and crime are of interest to this day. Amelia was published in 1751, when its author was a magistrate at Bow Street. In a dedicatory letter, Fielding explained that the book was sincerely designed to promote the cause of virtue, and to expose some of the most glaring evils, as well public as private, which at present infest the country. The licentiousness of wealthy men about town, the corruption of justice, the abuses of the prison system, the lack of honour concerning marriage--these are some of the glaring evils exposed with all the great...
