Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Brandon Boader has multiple personalities, yet he s not psychotic, according to his prison psychiatrist. But the doctor never would have released Brandon if he d known about his plans to use his mastery of self-hypnosis and mind control to commit the perfect murder. When Brandon was six years old, his parents were killed during a home invasion. The two brothers who perpetrated the crime went free because of evidence mishandling at the crime lab. Brandon is determined to finally settle the score-without getting caught. He recruits Dani Dimingo, a young woman he knew in junior high school, to help him carry out his scheme of revenge. The chemistry between them is undeniable, and they have a lot in common. Dani has struggled with mental problems too, having spent half of her teen years in a psychiatric facility. It s one of the reasons she s right for the job. But while the two are executing Brandon s elaborate plan, Dani becomes terrified when she suspects that Brandon is about to kill one of the brothers. She can t believe Brandon is capable of murder, but given the strange mental state he s imposed upon himself, does Brandon even know what he s doing? Has one of his alter egos completely taken over his mind? And if so, is there any way for Dani to stop him before he destroys Brandon s life as well as her own?.
